

TALENTS FOR CHRIST 2007 COMPETITION

WHO MAY ENTER?

Scholarship Competition—High school sophomores, juniors, or seniors with at least a C average

Group Competition—Seventh through twelfth graders. Smaller churches may include students from other churches as long as the students meet the eligibility requirements. The group, however, must compete under the name of the sponsoring church.

All competitors must be members in good standing of a church or mission church in fellowship with the GARBC. If you are actively involved in a GARBC church but are not a member due to extenuating circumstances, contact your state TFC director.

HOW DO I ENTER MY STATE CONTEST?

Scholarship Competition

Fill out the entry form and send it to the GARBC Ministry Resource Center. You may also register online at www.garbc.org/TFC.

Group Competition

If your state sponsors group competition in small or large vocal ensembles, puppet teams, or drama teams, you must send your state's own TFC entry form to your state TFC office along with any fee your state requires.

Place and Date of Competition

Visit www.garbc.org/TFC for the place and date of your state competition and the name of your state TFC director.

VISIT THE TFC WEB SITE at

www.garbc.org/TFC

for a complete listing of eligibility requirements, rules, and more.

WHAT ABOUT NATIONAL COMPETITION?

Who's Eligible?

All first- and second-place state winners in scholarship and non-scholarship group competitions

When and Where?

Group Competition—Wednesday, June 27, 2007

Scholarship Competition—Thursday, June 28, 2007

Competitions will be held at the Lancaster Host Resort in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. TFC is part of the 2007 GARBC Annual Conference held at the Lancaster Host Resort.

Scholarship winners do not pay an additional fee to compete in the national contest. Group winners will be sent a national entry form after their state competition. To compete nationally in a group category, you must send an entry form and a fee of $75 by May 1, 2007.

PARTICIPATE IN STUDENTS ALIVE!

While at the national competition, develop your spiritual life through challenging messages and great fellowship with friends from around the country.

June 26-29, 2007