

Need for New Churches

In recognition of the great perils facing America and the urgency of an immediate effort to Scripturally evangelize this land before the blight of Communism, Modernism, and Catholicism curses our national life, be it resolved (1) that all our home missionary agencies have every possible encouragement and financial support from our churches; (2) that we urge upon every strong church in our Fellowship to undertake to establish at least one new mission church during the forthcoming Associational year.

*Chicago, Illinois
May 10-13, 1954*