

Neo-Evangelicalism

WHEREAS there are increasing attempts on the part of some neo-evangelicals and others to ascribe degrees of authority to the Bible by differentiating between revelational and non-revelational matters—between matters of faith and peripheral matters—in an effort to accommodate the Word of God to “science” and to provide a more favorable climate for theological dialogue;

BE IT RESOLVED that the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches, meeting in Annual Conference at the Civic Auditorium in Grand Rapids, Michigan, June 20–24, 1966, go on record as reaffirming its belief in the Bible and its own testimony of total inerrancy and therefore absolute authority in all matters upon which it pronounces.
