

Keeping Our Perspective in Perilous Times

WHEREAS the Scripture indicates that in the last days perilous times shall come (2 Tim. 3:1) in which apostasy will abound, error will flourish, compromise will be evidenced and God's people will be opposed; and

WHEREAS because of the growing religious confusion, the fierce spiritual conflicts and personal pressures magnified by the weakness of the flesh, believers will be tempted to embrace extremes of thought and action unwarranted by Scripture;

BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers of the churches in fellowship with the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches, meeting in Annual Conference in Seattle, Washington, June 21–25, 1976, pledge ourselves to the truth expressed by the theme of our conference, Keeping Our Perspective in Perilous Times, thus maintaining a balanced ministry by:

- Exhibiting both holiness and love in decisions and actions;
- Combining sanctified scholarship and spiritual fervency;
- Uniting theological preciseness with evangelistic outreach;
- Championing Biblical separation while rejecting a bitter, caustic spirit; and
- Defending the truth while loving the brethren.
