

Personal Holiness

WHEREAS the Scriptures clearly teach that God's people should deny ungodliness and worldly lusts but live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world (Titus 2:12); and

WHEREAS the general looseness of morality, the increase of broken homes and the frightful scandal of national drunkenness and drug use mark this generation as one of epidemic hedonism; and

WHEREAS our own fundamental church people are often observed with shabby dress, immodest garments, hippy hairstyles, and even questionable social practices;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers of the churches in fellowship with the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches, meeting in Annual Conference in Seattle, Washington, June 21–25, 1976, urge pastors, youth leaders, and faculties of our Bible colleges and seminaries to hold up holy hands to speak out forthrightly on the evils of worldliness in dress, appearance, and habits.
