

Worthy Is the Lamb

WHEREAS one of the central themes of Scripture is Jesus Christ, the divine Son of God; and

WHEREAS without Him, His life, death, burial, resurrection the application of that work to our hearts, we would be without life and hope in this world as well as in the next; and

WHEREAS God has highly exalted Him and given Him a name which is above every name;

BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers of the churches in fellowship with the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches, meeting in annual session in Lakeland, Florida, June 26–30, 1978, have assembled in this 47th conference to worship and exalt the Lord Jesus Christ as the worthy Lamb. We are reminded that He is the Lamb of God Who taketh away the sin of the world, and we are ones who have not been redeemed with corruptible things as silver and gold but with the precious blood of Christ as a Lamb without spot and blemish. Being further reminded that one glorious day the Lamb will gather us to Himself along with a great multitude from all nations and kindred and people and tongues who shall stand before the throne of the Lamb, clothed in white robes that have been made white through the blood of the Lamb; and together we shall cry with one great voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing for ever and ever. Amen!"
