

The Gulf War

WHEREAS earlier this year President George Bush refused to look the other way when Iraqi President Saddam Hussein ruthlessly and murderously overran the small nation of Kuwait; and

WHEREAS United States troops and military equipment and supplies were massively and rapidly deployed; and

WHEREAS other nations joined hands with United States personnel in facing down evil aggression and were willing to fight for the sovereign rights of a small nation and to ward off the larger threats of territorial takeover, including the endangerment of Israel; and

WHEREAS the battle was fought wisely, decisively and with victorious results;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we, the messengers of the churches in fellowship with the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches, meeting for our 60th Annual Conference in Indianapolis, Indiana, on June 24–28, 1991, praise and thank our Heavenly Father for His favor and blessing upon the coalition troops; that we thank President Bush and his military strategists and leadership for their bravery and diligence; and that we express our profound sympathy for the families and loved ones of those who gave their lives for the cause of freedom; and that we further salute all the United States military personnel for their disciplined preparedness, sacrifices, courage, and superb performance in fulfilling their obligations to the cause of freedom and their government. God bless America.
